

The Jargon Busting Quiz

How well do you know open banking and open finance jargon?

Swipe to find out in 8 questions

Q1: What does AISP stand for?

- A Automated Information Service Provider
- B Account Information Service Provider
- C Advanced Internet Security Protocol
- D Application Interface Standards Platform

Q1: What does AISP stand for?

- A Automated Information Service Provider
- B Account Information Service Provider
- C Advanced Internet Security Protocol
- D Application Interface Standards Platform

Answer: B

Q2: A "challenger bank" is a financial institution that:

- A Disputes regulatory decisions
- B Competes with traditional banks using innovative products
- C Only serves corporate clients
- D That specializes in high-risk lending

Q2: A "challenger bank" is a financial institution that:

- A Disputes regulatory decisions
- B Competes with traditional banks using innovative products
- C Only serves corporate clients
- D That specializes in high-risk lending

Answer: B

Q3: What is "screen scraping"?

- A Taking screenshots of banking apps
- B A method to extract data by mimicking user interactions
- C Cleaning malware from financial systems
- D Blocking unauthorized screen access

Q3: What is "screen scraping"?

- A Taking screenshots of banking apps
- B A method to extract data by mimicking user interactions
- C Cleaning malware from financial systems
- D Blocking unauthorized screen access

Answer: B

Q4: SCA stands for:

- A Strong Customer Authentication
- B Secure Customer Authentication
- C Standard Compliance Agreement
- D Statutory Customer Authorization

Q4: SCA stands for:

- A Strong Customer Authentication
- B Secure Customer Authentication
- C Standard Compliance Agreement
- D Statutory Customer Authorization

Answer: A

Q5: What does "OAuth2" enable?

- A Two-factor authentication for all users
- B Granting access to a set of resources through authorization
- C Automatic user logouts after 2 hours
- D Double encryption of all data

Q5: What does "OAuth2" enable?

- A Two-factor authentication for all users
- B Granting access to a set of resources through authorization
- C Automatic user logouts after 2 hours
- D Double encryption of all data

Answer: B

Q6: "Data aggregation" in open finance means:

- A Storing customer data in one location
- B Encrypting sensitive financial information
- C Collecting and combining data from multiple sources into a single platform
- D Deleting old transaction records

Q6: "Data aggregation" in open finance means:

- A Storing customer data in one location
- B Encrypting sensitive financial information
- C Collecting and combining data from multiple sources into a single platform
- D Deleting old transaction records

Answer: C

Q7: What is "financial inclusion"?

- A Including all fees in loan calculations
- B Making financial services accessible to individuals and businesses
- C Including insurance in all financial products
- D Mandatory financial education programs

Q7: What is "financial inclusion"?

- A Including all fees in loan calculations
- B Making financial services accessible to individuals and businesses
- C Including insurance in all financial products
- D Mandatory financial education programs

Answer: B

Q8: "RESTful APIs" are:

- A APIs that work only during business hours
- B APIs designed for mobile apps only
- C Restricted Enterprise Security Technology APIs
- D Application programming interfaces following REST architecture

Q8: "RESTful APIs" are:

- A APIs that work only during business hours
- B APIs designed for mobile apps only
- C Restricted Enterprise Security Technology APIs
- D Application programming interfaces following REST architecture

Answer: D

Want to master the jargon?
Decode open banking and open finance with the Ozone API glossary

